

Developing financial knowledge and skills of Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander people in western NSW

Our Manage Your Income Manage Your Life (MYI MYL) program is designed specifically for and by Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander people in western NSW.

Staff work with individuals, communities and agencies to develop financial management skills in participants, their families and communities and enhance their quality of life.

Our MYI MYL team can help you with:

- Budgeting and setting financial goals
- Information about banking and Centrelink
- Debts that you are struggling to pay
- Consumer issues
- No Interest Loan Scheme (NILS)
- Threatening letters or harassment by debt collectors
- Potential disconnection of gas, electricity, phone etc
- Taxation debts and unpaid fines
- Getting your drivers licence
- Starting a business
